LUDWIG ALBERT

Internationally highly acclaimed as pedagogue and one of today's leading marimbists throughout the world, Ludwig Albert belongs as Belgian leading marimbist and pioneer with the absolute top flight of marimbists nowadays. After obtaining the virtuoso prize and his master degree, he shaped his talent with Keiko Abe in Japan and was honored since to perform with her several concert-productions. Until 2010 he appeared as Yamaha artist, is related as Adams Artist from 2011 and assisted in the construction and release of his own new signature Adams marimba model, an honor for the first time presented to a European marimba virtuoso. Showered with several titles, he released 9 label albums with mainly first recordings of masterworks, own compositions, improvisations, arrangements and dedicated works. He astonished his audience by playing in première the marimba with 8 mallets. Praised for his unique sound he's performing worldwide concerts and clinics at prestigious festivals and universities. He's related as titular professor marimba at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Antwerp (University College of Music), as titular professor of the percussion & marimba department at the Leuven University College of Arts (Lemmens institute) and as guest-professor at the National University in Chiapas-Mexico.
