HOLZINGER THOMAS

Thomas Holzinger,

After his studies at the Conservatoire de Strasbourg in percussion, specializing in timpani, chamber music and conducting,

Thomas Holzinger pursues a career as a freelance musician and percussion teacher at the Conservatoire de Sarrebourg.

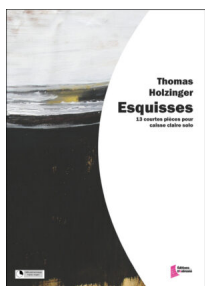

He has developed his experience as an orchestral musician with groups such as the Orchestre Français des Jeunes, the Young Janacek Orchestra and the Orchestre Philharmonique de Strasbourg among others...

He works regularly with early music ensembles, recently with the Ricercar Consort, the Concert Français, the Chapelle Rhénane, and the Ensemble Pygmalion...

At the same time, he devotes himself to chamber music: the Concert Royal, Ensemble Atrium, and practices all music from the Renaissance to contemporary music.

He also explores the world of musical theater by collaborating with directors.
